

THE ZEN CENTER OF SYRACUSE

BICENTENNIAL SERIES

To mark the occasion of the 200th anniversary of the Joshua Forman House in the historic Onondaga Valley, the Zen Center is presenting a series of joyous, healing events.

SOH DAIKO

Great Drums of Harmonious Peace

Soh Daiko was formed in 1979 as the first taiko group on the East Coast, taking as its name the ancient characters meaning “peaceful, harmonious drums.” The name reflects the spirit of community dedication and cooperation and the belief in the oneness of the universe.

The workshop and concert will bring joy and energy to all. These family events are open to the public.

Taiko Drum Workshop

October 16, 2010 4–6 pm

Learn how to play the giant drums!

All levels of experience welcome.

To register call the Zen Center at (315) 492-9773

$15 class fee.

Taiko Drum Concert

October 17, 2010 1:30 pm

Free Open Air Concert

The energy and excitement of the giant drums of peace will rock the neighborhood in recognition of the historic Zen Center home built by the first president of the village of Syracuse, Joshua Forman 200 years ago.

Forman House Front Porch
266 West Seneca Turnpike

Zen Center of Syracuse – Hoenji
266 West Seneca Turnpike, Syracuse, NY 13207
(315) 492-9773 • www.zencenterofsyracuse.org